9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants, P.O. “JOHN” DOYLE, P.O. “JOHN” CHIN and P.O.s “JOHN DOE” #1-10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State or City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

12. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting in furtherance of their employment by defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

13. On August 6, 2006, at approximately 3:00 a.m., plaintiff JOSEPH PIZARRO witnessed an accident involving his mother, who was struck by a motor vehicle in front of 15 East 199th Street, in the County of Bronx, City and State of New York.

14. After briefly pursuing the fleeing vehicle, plaintiff JOSEPH PIZARRO ran back toward his mother, who was severely injured and lying on the ground.

15. Before he could reach his mother, plaintiff JOSEPH PIZZARO was suddenly accosted by several members of the New York City police department.

16. Without any warning or provocation, defendants ordered plaintiff JOSEPH PIZZARO to place his hands behind his back and then pushed him face first onto the trunk of a car.

17. Plaintiff JOSEPH PIZZARO repeatedly attempted to tell the officers that his mother had just been struck by a car, but defendants would not listen.

18. Instead, defendants continued to forcibly detain plaintiff JOSEPH PIZZARO against his will.

19. Thereafter, several more police officers arrived on the scene. The officers screamed at JOSEPH PIZZARO to “get down on the ground!”, but plaintiff could not move because he was lodged against the trunk of the car

20. Thereafter, defendants began to strike plaintiff JOSEPH PIZZARO repeatedly in an effort to force him to the ground.

21. One of the defendant officers then pulled down plaintiff JOSEPH PIZZARO's shorts to his ankles, humiliating him in front of his friends and neighbors.

22. Another officer pulled out a stun gun and told his fellow officers to "move back!"

23. Thereafter, this officer fired his stun gun at plaintiff JOSEPH PIZZARO, striking him in the right side and causing plaintiff to experience excruciating pain.

24. Several members of the New York City Police Department witnessed this unlawful use of force, but none of them attempted to intercede.

25. After the incident, plaintiff was taken to North Central Hospital in the Bronx for treatment of his injuries.

26. Thereafter, plaintiff continued to suffer pain and discomfort in the area where he was struck by the stun gun, and plaintiff still has marks on his back from the stun gun prongs that were lodged in his body.

27. In connection with this unlawful assault, defendants filled out false police reports and forwarded these false reports to prosecutors in the New York County District Attorney's Office.

28. Notwithstanding the unlawful conduct of defendants, all charges were dismissed against plaintiff on April 4, 2007.

29. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff sustained plaintiff sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, loss of liberty, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
